

PSALM 69 C. M.

BALERMA

Arranged by Robert Simpson

Though I am poor and sor - row - ful, Hear Thou, O God, my cry;

Let Thy sal - va - tion come to me And lift me up on high.

[Stanzas 19-23]

| 2 Then will I praise my God with song,
To Him my thanks shall rise,
And this shall please Jehovah more
Than offered sacrifice. | 4 Let heaven and earth and seas rejoice,
Let all therein give praise,
For Zion God will surely save,
Her broken walls will raise. |
| 3 The meek shall see it and rejoice,
Ye saints, no more be sad;
For lo, Jehovah hears the poor
And makes His prisoners glad. | 5 In Zion they that love His Name
Shall dwell from age to age;
Yea, there shall be their lasting rest,
Their children's heritage. |
